

At Settlers we commit to communicating in the following ways

I will be respectful and mindful of confidentiality when communicating with others

I will communicate with others in a timely manner and include them in decisions which affect them directly.

I will use respectful language, tone and open body language and demonstrate common courtesy in all forms of communication.

I will listen respectfully and without judgement to others and remain open to ideas, opinions and feedback.

I will treat everyone equally and fairly, respecting each other's knowledge, experience and skills.
